

BOGDAN SYDORENKO

Henri SELMER Paris Artist

Clarinetist

BIOGRAPHY

Bogdan Sydorenko is a French clarinetist of Ukrainian origin, acclaimed for his versatility across both classical and contemporary repertoire.

Born in Kyiv into a family of musicians, he graduated with highest honours from the National Academy of Music of Ukraine before continuing his studies at the Conservatoire National Supérieur de Musique et de Danse de Paris, where he studied with Philippe Berrod and Alain Billard.

He earned three Master's degrees from the CNSMDP: Clarinet, Bass Clarinet and Chamber Music.

In 2009 he appeared as soloist with the Central European Initiative Youth Orchestra (CEI-YO), performing throughout Italy, Austria and Germany. In 2014 he performed with the Ravenna Festival Orchestra under Riccardo Muti.

Since 2015 he has been principal clarinetist of the French contemporary music ensembles Multilatérale and TM+. Since 2021 he has served as principal bass clarinetist of the Orchestre d'Harmonie de la Préfecture de Police de Paris.

His distinctions include First Prize (Gold Medal) at the Vienna International Music Competition and First Prize at the International Clarinet Competition Brno, Czech Republic, both awarded in 2019.

An official Henri SELMER Paris Artist, he pursues an international career as soloist, chamber musician and pedagogue, performing regularly throughout Europe, China and Japan. He has also produced professional studio recordings of works by Francis Poulenc, Pablo Sarasate, Gioachino Rossini and Béla Kovács.
